

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JPC and SAG-AFTRA Agree to Additional Extension of Negotiations on Commercials Contracts

Parties agree to extend talks through April 11, 2025

NEW YORK (April 4, 2025) — In order to facilitate the continuation of productive negotiations, SAG-AFTRA and The Joint Policy Committee have agreed to an additional extension of the 2022 Commercials Contracts.

The agreements, which were previously extended to expire at 11:59 p.m. PT April 4, will now expire April 11, at 11:59 p.m. PT. The extension includes all waivers under the commercials contracts including, but not limited to, the influencer waiver and the low budget digital waiver.

The parties will continue to negotiate under a mutually agreed upon media blackout. Neither organization will comment to the media about the negotiations during the extension.

###

Contact:

Stacy Marcus, 212-335-4930

JPC

Partner, DLA Piper LLP (US)

Pamela Greenwalt, 323-440-2892

SAG-AFTRA

Chief Communications & Marketing Officer